The Sheriff's Foundation for Public Safety and the Girl Scouts Golden Valley Council Host 'Steak Out' Fundraiser

The Sheriff's Foundation for Public Safety and the Girl Scouts Golden Valley Council will host a joint fundraiser called 'Steak Out' Saturday, June 21, 2003 from 6pm to 10pm at Pelco Vice President of Manufacturing Tim Glines' estate. The cost is $125.00 per person.

Pelco President and CEO, David L. McDonald, will offer special remarks. Scheduled to attend are U.S. Representatives George Radanovich and Calvin Dooley, Fresno Mayor, Alan Autry, Fresno County Sheriff, Richard Pierce, Clovis Councilman, Jose Flores, Fresno Superintendent of Public, Instruction Pete Mehas, as well as other local business and community leaders.

The Sheriff's Foundation for Public Safety has been established to help improve the quality of life for all those served by the Fresno County Sheriff's Department. The primary objectives are to develop, improve and support other non-profit charitable, education, prevention programs and services that help to improve the quality of life for all that live within our community. The Foundation also provides support to citizen volunteer groups involved in the Sheriff's public safety services. The volunteer organizations include the Uniformed Reserves, the Explorers, the Sheriff's Posse, the Mountaineers, the Snowmobile team, the Jeep Squadron and the Air Squadron. The members of the Sheriff's Department are committed to an ongoing partnership with the community, based on communication, cooperation and trust. For more information contact Sergeant Susan Watkins at 488-3527, CSO Addie Delgadillo at 488-2527 or CSO Milton Vann at 488-3259.

The Girl Scouts Golden Valley Council (GSGVC) is one of 317 councils chartered by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A; GSGVC serves girls in Fresno, Madera, Tulare and Kings counties. Currently, GSGVC has over 500 troops. They build leaders, one girl at a time. GSGVC provides an environment where today's girls can become tomorrow's leaders. For further information, please check out GSGVC website, www.girlscoutsgvc.org or call 291-5078.
