MEDIA ADVISORY: Arrest of Fresno County Employee

On February 23, 2007, Fresno County Sheriff's deputies arrested 45 year old Milinda Saldivar of Fresno on possession of stolen property charges.

Deputies were asked to assist Fresno Police Officers on a vehicle stop in the area of McKinley & Eleventh in Fresno after medication was located in the vehicle belonging to the Fresno County Jail. Investigation revealed that Saldivar, the registered owner of the vehicle, is a nurse employed by Fresno County Department of Community Health and has been assigned to the Fresno County Jail for the past ten years. It was further revealed that Saldivar had taken the medication from the jail pharmacy.

Saldivar was arrested for possession of stolen property charges and booked into the Fresno County Jail. The investigation is continuing.
