MEDIA ADVISORY: Four Arrested By Ag Task Force Investigators

Detectives from The Fresno County Ag Task Force arrested four people after discovering several pounds of stolen copper wire in their vehicle. Arrested were Gabriel Joseph Callison (37), Andrew Howard Lystad (39), Todd Lawrence Paul (37, and Shylo Badiali (26). All four subjects are from the Fresno area.

On January 29th during an ongoing investigation, Ag Task Force detectives pulled over a tan colored Ford Probe in the area of Central and Golden State.

Deputies contacted the four subjects and, during the investigation, discovered approximately 100 pounds of copper wire in the trunk of the vehicle.

The investigation continued and, as a result, Callison was arrested on charges related to wire theft, and Lystad was arrested on an outstanding felony arrest warrant for vehicle theft and possession of stolen property. Paul and Badiali were arrested on narcotics charges after they were found to be in possession of methamphetamine and narcotics paraphernalia.

All four were subsequently booked into the Fresno County Jail.

Anyone with information regarding this case, or any other wire related theft, is asked to contact the Ag Task Force at 898-0667, the Fresno County Sheriff's Office at 488-3111, or CrimeStoppers at 498-STOP(7867).
