MEDIA ADVISORY: Stolen Blanket Leads To Arrest Of Three In Hot Prowl Burglary.

Fresno County Sheriff Margaret Mims today announced the arrest of three Fresno men on burglary and possession of stolen property charges. Arrested were 24 year old Charles Williams, 23 year old Jayson Sanderson, and 21 year old Princeton Williams.

The incident started last night shortly before 11:00 pm when deputies responded to a residence located in the 3000 block of W. Floradora Ave. regarding a burglary in progress call.

The caller, a 16 year old female, reported that three male subjects had entered her home, waking her, her younger brother, sister and niece. She also advised that they were alone at the house and that they had locked themselves in a back bedroom.

Responding deputies were able to set up a perimeter, get the children out safely and start a search of the residence. However, the subjects had already fled.

At the same time, assisting deputies located Williams, Sanderson, and Williams in the area of McKinley and Marks, just north of the victim's residence. One of the subjects was holding a blue blanket that was later determined to have been stolen from the victim's residence.

All three subjects were later booked into the Fresno County Jail. Princeton Williams was also booked on parole violations.
