MEDIA ADVISORY: Help Wanted In Missing Person Case

Fresno County Sheriff Margaret Mims is asking for the public's help in locating a Sanger woman who was reported missing earlier this month.

On the evening of April 3rd, 47 year old Peggy Sue Carrillo was reported missing from her residence located in the 18000 block of S. Goodfellow Ave.

Carrillo was last seen getting into an unknown type vehicle that had pulled up in front of the house. Carrillo left her clothing, possessions, and dogs at the residence and has not been heard from since.

Carrillo is described as being white, 5-7/ 160 pounds with brown or blond hair and green eyes. She also has a tattoo of two hearts on her left chest area, and walks with the use of a cane.

Anyone with information on Carrillo's whereabouts is asked to contact Detective Romeo Grajeda at 488-3638, the Fresno County Sheriff's Office at 488-3111, or CrimeStoppers at 498-STOP(7867).
