Detectives Searching for Masked Burglary Suspects

Property crimes detectives with the Fresno County Sheriff's Office are searching for two masked suspects who tried to burglarize a home in northwest Fresno, near Sierra Sky Park. The burglary attempt took place on Tuesday, April 25, 2017 at approximately 9:15 pm. The homeowner on the 7400 block of N. Valentine Ave. in Fresno was awoken by a noise and later checked video captured by their home surveillance system. They discovered two people wearing ski masks with radio devices strapped around their necks walking on the property. No entry was made to the house, however, the homeowner still did the right thing by quickly reporting this activity to the Sheriff's Office.

Anyone with information on the suspects or knowledge of similar occurrences taking place should contact Detective Sergio Garcia at (559) 600-8711 or Crime Stoppers at (559) 498-7867. You will remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward.
