Detectives Trying to Identify Gunman who Robbed Adams Market

Around 6:15 am on Friday, July 13th, a man wearing a bandana over his face walked into Adams Market located at E. Adams & S. Cedar Ave in Fresno. Armed with a handgun, he robbed the clerk, taking cash from the registers and a wallet from a customer. He then ran away westbound on Adams Ave. The store employees, none of whom were injured, immediately made a report to the Sheriff's Office.

Deputies responded and collected video surveillance of the crime to develop a description of the suspect. He appears to be Hispanic, 5'5", with a medium build. He was wearing a black t-shirt, dark jeans and a black baseball cap made of leather. He has tattoos on his right forearm, left wrist and the top of his left hand.

Another armed robbery took place at this same store on April 25th, 2018. An arrest was made in that case on the same day.

Anyone with additional information about the identity of the suspect is asked to contact Detective Patrick Beggs at (559) 600-8390 or Patrick.Beggs@fresnosheriff.org. You may also contact Crime Stoppers at (559) 498-7867. You will remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward.
